Rules:

- All entries must be submitted by 9:00pm, Monday, February 20th, 2012
- Submission video file names must include 'BRSVideo' your group name and category (Under 18 YO or Over 18 YO)
- All submissions must be accompanied by a name for the video as well as a name for the group submitting it and each of the participants.
- All videos must be submitted in hard-copy format (no links to youtube or email submissions) - if you would like your CD, DVD or USB key returned to you please include your full address
- Please make sure your submission is clearly labeled on the outside of the hard copy
- All entries must be suitable to be played in the shul and in front of children: no profanity, nudity or inappropriateness (as determined by the committee).
- Entries must be between 1 and 4 minutes long.
- BRS reserves the right to publish videos and to use them in any website and/or promotional material without compensation to the creator.
- Groups with participants under 18 years of age must have the signed consent of their parents.
- Signed rules must be submitted with the video. The signature also gives permission for all participants in the video to be shown and or publish the videos and to use them in any website and/or promotional material without any additional permission.
- Submissions in the Under 18 category must be written and directed by someone under the age of 18

Eligibility:

Everyone is invited to participate, but only one submission is permitted per person/group. Members of the Digital Shorts Committee are not eligible to participate in any of the videos. Any videos submitted after the deadline will automatically be disqualified.

Winning:

Winning submissions will be featured on the BRS website, Facebook page and weekly. Videos will be judged based on quality, content and humor. Entries will be narrowed down to 3 finalists per category by the committee. Winning entries will be voted on by the community at the BRS Purim Carnival on Sunday, February 26th.
